Why should I become a Navy CYP Intern?

Navy Child and Youth Programs (CYP) provide high quality educational and recreational programs for children and youth. Teams of caring, knowledgeable professionals plan developmentally appropriate programs that are responsive to the unique needs, abilities, and interests of children. The staff fosters a sense of independence, trust and responsibility within each child through understanding and respectful interactions. Likewise, through positive relationships, the programs respect and support the ideals, cultures, and values of families in their task of nurturing children and youth. CYP advocates for children, families, and the child and youth professionals within our programs and surrounding communities. Today, the military child development program stands as a model of child care for the nation. If you have this same drive and compassion as our CYP staff, then please consider becoming a Navy CYP intern!!!
