

WANTED

Interpretive Specialists on Idaho/Montana Wilderness Rivers

ROW Adventures is Idaho's largest outdoor adventure company. We provide guided whitewater rafting, canoeing and hiking trips in Idaho and Montana's wilderness areas. ROW's Mission Statement is "Sharing Nature – Enriching Lives" and one of our core values is "Bringing meaningful interpretation to our guests". ROW has been in business for over 28 years; we offer a wide variety of trips and have the following employment opportunities in the interpretive field.

Whitewater Rafting or Canoe Trip Guides

We are seeking guides with exceptional interpretive skills for guiding positions on 1 to 6 day trips on rivers in Idaho and Montana. Positions are available from May – September. Previous guiding experience is not required. We will host a guide school for all whitewater guides.

Lodge-Based Activity Guide at the River Dance Lodge

We are looking for guides to lead gentle float trips, fishing trips, nature walks, and facilitate other activities. Guiding experience preferred, but not required, however a strong interpretive background is a must. Positions are available from June – September 1.

Inexperienced Guide Positions / Family Trip "Jesters"

We have a few jobs available for people who are interested in becoming guides but do not have any experience. We have "Jester" positions that focus on running interpretive activities for kids on our river trips. If you enjoy spending time with kids please go online and learn more.
