

EXPERIENCE THE FLORIDA KEYS

SEACAMP is a non-profit organization offering a unique marine science/SCUBA residential camp for teenagers 12-17 and a marine science daycamp for youth 10-13. Established in 1966, it is located near the most extensive coral reef in the continental United States, in the middle of the Florida Keys National Marine Sanctuary. SEACAMP offers courses in marine science, SCUBA diving, sailing, windsurfing, canoeing, kayaking, arts and crafts, photography, and camp newspaper. For more information visit our website www.seacamp.org or call (305)872-2331.

CABIN COUNSELOR POSITION OPENINGS:

Residential Cabin Counselors live with and supervise a cabin of 5-10 teens aged 12-17 during their stay at camp. Counselors assist or teach aquatics, including windsurfing and sailing, science classes, scuba classes, and/or creative expression classes during the day and supervise campers during evening programs and free time.

REQUIREMENTS:

Cabin Counselor must be at least 19 years of age. Must be comfortable in the water with strong boating and aquatic skills. SCUBA certification is preferred, but not required. Employment dates are May 29-August 26; May 23– Aug 2.

BENEFITS:

Salary, room and board, opportunities for snorkeling, SCUBA diving (if certified), sailing, windsurfing, and practical experience teaching environmental awareness in a tropical marine setting. Comprehensive experiential staff training program.

Our former staff say that working at Seacamp:

- * Lets you guide and impact younger kids positively; that is very rewarding.
- * Helps to gain experience in the marine science field.
- * The staff have an opportunity to teach campers life skills and exert a positive influence on others.

MANY OTHER POSITIONS AVAILABLE:

Science Instructors, Unit Leaders, SCUBA Instructors, Arts & Crafts and Photography Instructors, as well as support services.
